Useful Resources

- CSC’s resources
- Guidance on care measures
- Information and education materials
- Webinars, training courses and podcasts
- Statements or guidance from the UN and regional human rights mechanisms
- Links to other relevant Covid-19 pages
- Reports
- Other

CSC’s resources:

  - Child-friendly video on the right to health, to help street-connected children understand their right to health and how they might be affected by Covid-19 – available in English here and French here.
  - Child-friendly video on lockdowns and freedom of association during Covid-19, explaining what a public emergency is, which rights governments can limit in an emergency and to what end, and which rights governments must always protect – available in English here and French here.
- Covid-19 myth-buster videos addressing the false information which is being spread during the Covid-19 pandemic – available here.
- Short advocacy videos based on our advocacy notes – on the right to health, the right to adequate food, and the right to information.
- Blog co-authored by CSC’s Research and Evaluation Officer, Shona Macleod with the Internal Displacement Monitoring Centre on the impacts of Covid-19 on young IDPs who have been pushed to live or work on the streets as a result of displacement – available here.

Guidance on care measures:

- Covid-19 guidance for interim care centres, from Save the Children – available here.
- Guidance produced by Railway Children Africa for partners on how to stay safe while running limited services for street children – available here.
- Guidance for street workers during the Covid-19 pandemic, from StreetInvest – available here.
• Community Health Worker Guidelines, from Dhaka Ahsania Mission – available in Bangla here.
• Case management considerations for children at risk of separation, including recently reunited children, during Covid-19 pandemic, from Better Care Network – available here.
• Case management considerations for children in residential care during Covid-19 pandemic, from Better Care Network – available here.
• Guidelines for virtual monitoring of children, their families and residential care facilities during the Covid-19 pandemic, from Better Care Network – available here.
• Gatekeeping considerations during the Covid-19 pandemic, from Better Care Network – available here.
• Guidance to support case workers to conduct virtual monitoring of children and their families within their caseload during the Covid-19 pandemic, from Better Care Network – available here.

Information and education materials:

• Storybook developed by and for children around the world looking at issues around mental health and wellbeing during Covid-19, from The Inter-Agency Standing Committee – available in 36 languages here.
• Learning resources for children during Covid-19, from Save the Children – available in English and Spanish here.
• Resources to help parents and children cope during Covid-19, from Save the Children – available here.
• Child-friendly explanations of coronavirus, with space for children’s drawings, shared by KDM – available here.
• How to stop the spread of coronavirus, from The Samaritan Trust – available here.
• Things to remember to avoid the spread of coronavirus, from Muslim Hands – available here.
• WHO Myth Busters – available here.
• Covid-19 explanatory leaflet with symptoms, from Ek Ronga Ek Ghuri – available in Bangla here.
• Covid-19 prevention and handling information, from KDM – available in Indonesian here.
• Child-friendly educational materials, from The Child Protection Hub – available in a range of European languages here.
• Information booklets on Covid-19 and a brochure on Islamic perspectives on pandemics, epidemics, and contagious disease, from Tostan – available in English, French, Portuguese, Creole, Wolof, Pulaar, Mandinka, Oniyan, Maninka, and Bamanankan here.

Webinars, training courses and podcasts:
- Podcast series addressing the needs of vulnerable children during the Covid-19 pandemic, including simple activities to reinforce emotional wellbeing and to raise topics such as hygiene and empathy, from Amal Alliance – available in English, Arabic, Spanish and French [here].
- Child Protection webinars, from The Child Protection Hub – available in a range of European languages [here].
- Free online training courses for UK-based organisations to address 3 important aspects of individual aspects of individual and community responses to the Covid-19 pandemic: disease prevention, stopping misinformation and, caring for mental health, from Red R UK – Access the training or register for international training (when available) [here].

Statements or guidance from the UN and regional human rights mechanisms:
- Covid-19 statement published by the Committee on the Rights of the Child, including a list of recommendations for States – available [here].
- Covid-19 guidance notes published by the UN Special Rapporteur on the Right to Housing – available [here].
- Statement published by the UN Committee on the Rights of the Child on Covid-19 and rights of children – available [here].

Links to other relevant Covid-19 pages:
- Online educational materials on Covid-19, compiled by Mobile School – available [here].
- The Child Protection Hub – available [here].
- Covid-19 resource page, including webinars, for caregivers and children, from International Society for the Prevention of Child Abuse and Neglect – available [here].
• Covid-19 resources hub, from End Violence Against Children – available here.
• Covid-19 resource page, from ISPCAN – available here.
• Resource centre on Covid-19 and children’s care, from Better Care Network – available here.
• Documents relating to the Covid-19 pandemic and street-connected children in Latin America – available here.
• Policy Responses to Covid-19 resources page, from CRIN – available here.
• Policy and Practice Brief to accelerate the release of children from detention during Covid-19, from Terre des Hommes and Baker McKenzie – available here.
• Practical operational guidelines for: social workers, security forces, and legal professionals to assist the handling of cases of children in conflict with the law during the Covid-19 crisis, from Terre des Hommes and Baker McKenzie – available here.

Reports:

- Children’s voices in the time of Covid-19: Continued child activism in the face of personal challenges, from World Vision – available here.

Other:

- Urgent measures issued by the Supreme Court of India that are needed to protect children in care institutions, with measures to be taken by child welfare committees – available here.
- The Tarjimly mobile app allows the world’s 3 billion multilingual speakers to remotely volunteer their language skills as translators and interpreters, so that no one is denied access to humanitarian services due to language barriers – available here.
- Covid-19 and Care Country Tracker developed by the Better Care Network which aims to support country-level actors to share information about what is happening in relation to Covid-19 and care – available here (feed information into the tracker here).